Celebrate perfect pairings at Junior League of Minneapolis fundraiser

MINNEAPOLIS, MN (January 12, 2012) – Experience an evening of perfect pairings at the Junior League of Minneapolis' (JLM) fundraiser, Duets, on January 28. The JLM will host patrons for an evening of music, dining and a silent auction starting at 7 p.m. at BMW of Minnetonka, 15802 Wayzata Boulevard in Minnetonka.

After a successful inaugural year, the JLM decided to feature the Duets theme again for its annual one-night fundraiser. The evening will include chef tastings and complementary spirit pairings from notable Twin Cities restaurants. There will also be a live and silent auction plus live entertainment from The Kurt Jorgensen Band.

“We are thrilled to partner with the BMW Dealership in Minnetonka for the location of the event—it’s a beautiful space,” says Sarah Punch, Chair of the committee organizing the event. “Our amazing committee of 25 women has been working all year putting together a great fundraiser for the Junior League and are so excited to see it all come to life.”

The cost to attend Duets is $125 and patron tables for six are $1,000. Tickets are currently on sale and are available for purchase via www.jlminneapolis.org.
